HERE'S the POINT

By SPENCE HELD

Henry Gunther will be 77 years old Sunday.

The veteran swimming coach recently returned home after spending the Christmas holidays in County Hospital, and his many Peninsula friends will be glad to know that his health is improved.

Gunther will be honored at a birthday party Saturday at 2 p.m. in the San Diego Yacht Club. This affair is being arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Steinbeck, and all of Gunther's old friends and pupils are invited to attend.

Speaking of old friends, I encountered some the other night at a meeting of the State College Alumni Association's board of directors.

The board elected Muriel Tolle, of 904 Scott St., president of the Alumni Association for 1955. Other Peninsula residents on the board include Willard Trask, Ray Blair and Bob Breitbard.

C. E. Peterson, former coach and retired dean of men at the college, was selected as the new executive director of the Alumni Association. "Pete" knows thousands of former State students by their first names and looks like the man for the job.

Point Loma High School's varsity basketball team has lost seven or eight games.

So what?

I don't care if they lose 'em all, so long as the boys stay in there fighting. Coach Hil Crosthwaite, returning from Navy duty inherited only two lettermen and most of the squad is fairly green.

They're a good bunch of boys, though, with several football players from last fall's varsity, and I wouldn't be surprised to see them knock somebody off one of these nights.

I came across a good book Saturday and, as is my custom, stayed up most of the night reading it.

The title is "In Winter Light", by Edwin Corle. It's a rather realistic novel about the Navajo Indians, strictly adult reading, with no Hollywood phony baloney. Those of you who have visited the Navajo Reservation in northeastern Arizona and seen some of the 60,000 Navajos living in that barren eroded wasteland, probably would enjoy the book.

You can get it in a two-bit reprint edition.

My wife and I made several auto trips to Tuba City, on the reservation. Once we picked up a hitch-hiking Indian family—the man was going to the hospital at Tuba—that included a baby sleeping peacefully on a cradle board.

Another time we ran smack into a tribal meeting of dark-faced Navajos. Men in levis, with high-crowned hats; women wearing long full satin skirts, velvet blouses and bright-striped Pendleton blankets.

They were preparing petitions to the Federal Government for better roads, more schools and hospitals, and irrigation projects.

The reservation is about the size of West Virginia. It looked to me like a thousand acres might support one sheep.

Yeah, the Navajos are poor but they are proud. They have one thing that many Americans don't have—peace of mind. Their serene philosophy sustains them under conditions that no white man could endure.

Maybe things are better on the reservation now than they were three or four years ago—there was supposed to be a 10-year, 90-million-dollar program to improve the situation. However, if it's like some of our foreign-aid programs, I suspect that little of this help will filter down to the average Navajo family.

It would be nice if they had adequate medical care and enough to eat.

Spanish Course Offered Locally

Most people are anxious to gain a knowledge of conversational Spanish so they can go to Mexico and converse with the natives or even to speak with those living around us.

Mrs. Gill has taught her native tongue to English here in San Diego for several years with excellent success. She is now offering a class to beginners at the Ocean Beach Elementary School every Tuesday and Thursday from 3:30 to 5:30 and at Pt. Loma High School the same days from 6:45 to 8:10.

For other classes call the Northwest Adult High School HU-8-8385.

GEORGE LUCKY. MASON HAM LEAD OCEAN BEACH BOWLERS

George Lucky toppled the maples for a 258 game and led the Lucky Marine Radio quintet to a 2-1 victory over Elm's Clothiers Tuesday of last week. However, Elm's maintains a lead of six games in the 800 Scratch League.

Mason Ham rolled a high series of 603. He had four strikes in a row twice in the game but he could only make a 203.

Angler's Bait and Tackle ran their Wednesday Mixed League lead to 10 games last week but the week's scoring was paced by Team 2 which shot 773 and 2188. Bob Godwin was tops with 190 and 512. For the women, Grace Lampert had 167 and Virginia Fulton rolled 413 for three games.

In the Thursday Mixed Trio circuit, ABC Bowling Supply holds a one-game lead over the Beach Combers. They are closely followed by the Mad Caps and Tro Fiends. No Friday 750 League results were available at the time of this writing but Kraft Drug holds a secure lead with Hudson Concrete in second, trailed by Practical Cleaners and Team 5.

The Clovers head the Junior League with the Alley Busters in second place, followed by Beach Typewriters. Bob Holzenberg shot 171 and 419.

Pt. Loma Plays Lincoln Friday

Point Loma High School students are expected to turn out in force at the Pointer gym tomorrow night when the varsity baskeball team engages Lincoln in a City League game.

This probably will get under way about 8:15 p.m., following a Sophomore game at 5:30 and a "B" team battle at 7—both with Lincoln.

The Loman varsity went down to defeat at the hands of La Jolla, 53-31, last Friday night in the Jewel City gym. Frank Rogers scored 11 points for the locals.

Fifteen Lomans saw action, with La Jolla using 13 players.

Point Loma's B team also lost to the Vikes, the score being 45-38. It was their first defeat in league play; they are tied for second place.

Anglers Haul In Bonito, Yellows And See Whales

Although they brought in fair catches of yellowtail and bonito all last week in spite of dodging one rain storm after another, deep sea anglers were looking forward to the promise of fair weather with the high expectancy of it being attended by the usual red hot fishing at the Coronado Islands and the Rock Pile.

In spite of the numerous interruptions by stormy weather last week, anglers brought in a few yellows each day to serve as samples, and at times the bonito haul ran as high as 500. Anglers also found that they could fill the bags with choice table fish by simply dropping the bait down to the bottom with a clincher sinker, and boats which specialized in bottom fishing seldom failed to take limits or near limits of red cod, groupers, and white fish.

In addition to top-notch fishing, San Diego sportfishing boats also could offer the unusual spectacle of schools of whales on their southern migration, and many anglers took advantage of the situation to put their cameras to the test.

Among Point Loma-Ocean Leach anglers who gave good accountings with rods and reels during the week were: J. E. Berrard, O. F. Meyers, Gene Estes, F. E. Buchanan, Andy Anderson, and C. J. Pappert.

EXTRA CAUTION URGED IN TRIPS TO SNOW

This is the time of year when snow in the mountains attracts thousands from all over San Diego county. Persons who are planning the trip are urged by the San Diego County Traffic Safety Council to exert extra caution on the mountain roads which are not built for heavy traffic and which will be in varying conditions for driving.

The Council offers these suggestions for the snow bound motorists: First, make sure your car is in top mechanical condition for the trip. Get the feel of the road. Try brakes occasionally while driving slowly and away from traffic. Find out just how slippery the road is and adjust your speed to road and weather conditions. Don't fall back on your city driving habits; you can't stop on an icy dime.

Keep Windshield Clear

Keep the windshield clear of ice, fog and frost. See that headlights, windshield wiper blades and defrosters are in good condition. You have to see danger to avoid it.

Be sure to use tire chains on snow and ice. They cut stopping distances about half, and give 4 to 7 times more starting and climbing traction ability. But even with the help of chains, slower than normal speeds are a 'must" on snow and ice.

In the heavy traffic that is anticipated on mountain roads leading to the snow playgrounds, take care to keep well back of the vehicle ahead—give yourself room to stop.

There's a lot of fun to be had from a trip to the snow—just drive carefully and watch out for the other fellow too.

No Theme Required For Fair Displays

Local organizations entering displays in this summer's Southern California Exposition & County Fair at Del Mar, will not have to follow an established theme, Paul T. Mannen, secretary-manager, announced this week.

Many exhibitors have felt they are restricted in their planning by conforming with an established motif, Mannen said. We believe we will get more diversified displays without a theme.

Mannen also announced that the Division of Fairs & Expositions had turned down his request for a shorter Junior Fair. Several 4-H and FFA groups have sought a five or six day period for exhibiting their livestock.

Meanwhile, work is going ahead on schedule on grandstand improvements. Two separate contracting firms are extending both ends of the plant. It is expected to have the project completed in time for the Exposition, Mannen said.

Ocean Beach Sand Fill Job 'Can Be Delayed'

Richard Eaton, of Washington, D. C., engineer for the U. S. Beach Erosion Board, says that "the filling of the beach" here with sand from the Mission Bay Channel dredging can be delayed until the board recommends a method to hold the sand in place.

That was the word received this week by Tom Drake, 1954 chairman of the Ocean Beach Chamber of Commerce Beach Improvement Committee.

Drake recently sent a letter to the City Council urging that construction of a rock groin in the vicinity of the foot of Saratoga Ave., be expedited. He stated that dumping sand on the beach without a groin to hold it in place "would be a waste of money as the tides would soon carry the sand away."

Drake also suggested that the Council request early information from the U. S. Erosion Board as to its recommendations because of the impending dredging of the Mission Bay Channel.

His letter was referred to the city manager, and Glenn A. Rick, city planning director, telephoned Engineer Eaton in Washington.

Rick recorded the results of his conversation with Eaton in a letter to City Manager O. W. Campbell and sent a copy to Drake. This reads, in part, as follows:

"Mr. Eaton advises me that the Beach Erosion Board may meet in the early part of March, but it is also possible that this meeting will have to be delayed, perhaps to the latter part of March . . . Until such time as the board decides what should be done, neither he nor any other of the staff would be empowered to make any recommendation to the city.

"He did tell me that the staff is not agreed on the best method of retaining the sand; that the jetty (groin) at the foot of Saratoga Ave. or Cape May Ave. is under consideration. Also being considered is the possibility of extending the (present) south jetty.

"It is his belief that the filling of the beach can be delayed until after the meeting of the Beach Erosion Board."

Drake commented that the filling of the beach, to repair erosion damage, "should be delayed, by all means," until the Erosion Board makes its recommendations.

"I am confident," he said, "that the board will recommend a groin in the vicinity of the foot of Saratoga Ave."

Actual dredging of the Mission Bay channel is expected to start about Feb. 1, he added, and the job probably will require about six months.

Preliminary work is under way now.

NEW ZANZIBAR GRAND OPENING SET FOR TODAY

Grand opening of the remodeled Zanzibar Restaurant at Midway Drive and Rosecrans street will be held today (Thursday) with a staff of 75 ready to handle the large crowd.

The restaurant was remodeled at a cost of $150,000, according to Edward Weerts, owner. Wendall Burton of Los Angeles is the new manager.

New fixtures include an all stainless steel kitchen with completely new equipment; a huge picture window in the dining room; a large lounge for diners to wait, and a newly landscaped area outside with 66-foot palm trees.

The total dining areas, comprising 5000 square feet, are double the former seating capacity.

Three primitive sculptured heads in red clay, three feet high, by Virginia Weerts, provide a fine art exhibit behind the cocktail bar. She was a pupil of Donal Hord.

Pt. Loma Kiwanis

The club gave $100 to the Marines' March of Dimes—the dime-a-step polio march of four Marine sergeants to Los Angeles. Harold Green was program chairman.

RUDRAUFF OFFERS PLATFORM OF COMMUNITY COOPERATION

A one-plank platform of "Community Cooperation and Teamwork" was announced yesterday by Jerome W. "Jerry" Rudrauff, candidate for Mayor.

The 35-year-old San Diego businessman and Chairman of last year's March of Dimes declared that "cooperation and eamwork within the City and among the communities of the County are the only solution to the many pressing problems confronting us.

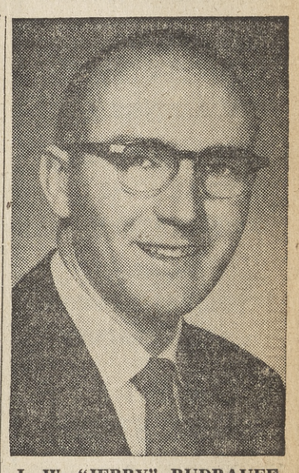
"As I see it," Rudrauff explained, "the biggest job of being Mayor is to coordinate our planning so that San Diego can keep pace with the continuous influx of new residents and new businesses.

"We'll never catch up if one department of the city administration works against another, if one section of the city vigorously opposes the plans of another of if the many communities in the County bicker over what schedule of progress to follow.

"As Mayor of San Diego I would do everything in my power to unify our plans for getting things done so that no one group or community would have to go it alone in such matters as water and port development, school and highway building, sewage disposal, anti-smog precautions and the securing of new industry.

"I believe that our present sewage disposal system is a threat to public health and that as soon as a reasonable new plan is ready it should be presented to the voters as a priority project.

"I think it is urgent that we build an auditorium and convention hall but here again I think the people should decide whether it is to be financed by private or public money and upon what site it should be built."



J. W. "JERRY" RUDRAUFF

Rudrauff is a native San Diegan. He attended high school and State College here and is presently in business with his father in an office machines store. He enlisted in World War II as an apprentice seaman in the Maritime Service, saw four years of training and overseas duty and attained the rank of Lieutenant, (jg).

He is active in the Junior and Senior Chambers of Commerce, holding offices in both. He is on the board of directors of the Armed Services YMCA and the Boys Club. He is now a member of the City School Superintendent's Advisory Committee for Athletics and has served on the City Charter Review Committee. In 1953 he was chairman of the first Anti-Litter Committee and in 1954 was chairman of the March of Dimes.

He is a member of the Lions Club, Al Bahr Shrine and the Mission Hills Congregational Church.

The candidate lives with his wife, Audgerie, and nine-year-old daughter, Ann, at 821 Allerton Court in Mission Beach.

SOLOMON, eminent British artist and one of the three greatest pianists in the world today, will play recital at Russ Auditorium, San Diego, on January 28th. This marks the second appearance here of this great musical genius. Event is under the Moss and Hayman management.

Freud Story Is Still Obscured

"Seldom understood but greatly acclaimed, Freud is mostly known today for distortions of his points of view," John Robert Clarke will tell his audience when he presents "Freud—A 20th Century Postscript," Tuesday, January 25, at eight p.m., at the House of Hospitality, Balboa Park.

Clarke, in his sixty-seventh public lecture in San Diege, will consider what basic truths Freud found, how valid they are in shaping conduct today, and whether people have gained by learning about the strange twilight world beneath the level of consciousness.

"Many persons are surprised," says Clarke, "to learn that Freud was charmingly flexible philosopher—that he was not a gloomy dream-splitter, and that he did not spend his lifetime making an emotional dissection table for the purpose of taking all the beauty out of life. To get behind these mistakes hand-me-down notions is to learn that Freud was one of the greatest incentive-inspiring fellows of his century, whose flashing, memorable ideas touched on just about everything."

Tuesday's will be the twelfth in the current Adventures in Living series, open to the public at a nominal donation, and followed by coffee and discussion.

Maple Mousse—New Dessert for Dieters

Low Calorie Maple Mousse — our recipe for today — is an all-year, all-weather dessert that will so please your taste you'll want more and more. And you can have more because each big serving of this dessert contains only 79 calories — just 40 per cent of the calories in a regular mousse recipe.

We cut calories by using skim milk. We cut calories by using maple flavoring and Sucaryl, the new non-caloric sweetener that can be cooked without becoming bitter or losing its sweetness. But we didn't cut a bit of sweetness, flavor, or divine texture. You'll love this dessert. And, once the family has tasted it, we are willing to guarantee that you'll want to have Maple Mousse once a week winter or summer. You don't need to wait for maple syrup time. You don't need to skip desserts because of waistline worries. You don't need to spend hours of cooking time.

You can use Sucaryl, too, in beverages, on cereals and on fruits. For calorie saving you'll be amazed to see how many hundreds of sugar calories can be saved by using Sucaryl — count 50 calories for every tablespoonful of sugar not used. Just try it, and see for yourself.

Low Calorie Maple Mousse

1 teaspoon Sucaryl solution or 8 Sucaryl tablets, crushed
2-1/2 tablespoons flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup skim milk
2 egg yolks
1 teaspoon maple flavoring
2 egg whites

Combine Sucaryl, flour and salt in top of double boiler; stir in milk gradually. Set over hot water; cook until consistency of thick sauce. Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon colored; add hot milk mixture very slowly, while stirring. Return to double boiler; cook until mixture mounds when dropped from a spoon. Add maple flavoring; cool. Spoon into refrigerator tray; chill at coldest setting 1/2 hour. Mash well with fork. Beat egg whites stiff; add maple mixture slowly, beating with rotary egg beater or electric mixer at lowest speed. Spoon in sherbet glasses. Chill thoroughly. Makes 4 servings. Each serving contains 79 calories; 5.5 grams protein; 3 grams fat; 7.5 grams carbohydrate. If made with sugar, each portion would contain 179 calories.

Speaking of PUBLIC SAFETY

Adequate street lighting as an effective weapon against crime and accidents in Washington is reflected in statistics supplied by Herbert A. Friede, electrical engineer for the District of Columbia.

After the new lights were installed along Benning Road on 15th Street to Benning Bridge, crime dropped 50 per cent, pedestrian accidents fell 44 per cent, hit and run accidents 18 per cent and speeding violations 60 per cent.

By contrast, he pointed out that three of the city's most recent sensational crimes — the murder of a Government worker in a residential hotel, the murder of the Maryland University registrar and the wounding of a congressional secretary in a street robbery — all occurred in poorly lighted areas. A police survey shows that of 5,050 crimes, 2,336 occurred at night, while a study of 17,206 traffic accidents showed that 7,210 happened between dusk and dawn.

Modern street lighting is gaining momentum in Washington as a new approach to a solution to the growing problems of crime, juvenile delinquency and traffic accidents.

This new line of thought is based on the statistically-backed realization that a definite relationship exists between lawlessness and accidents and inadequate street lighting.

Handy Jim's FIXIN'-UP TIPS For the Home

Non-Clogging Gutters

A SIMPLE, inexpensive way to keep leaves from clogging your gutters and getting into the downspouts and drainage system is to install some small rolls of half-inch galvanized mesh wire.

Buy a piece 30 or 36 inches wide and cut it into pieces 6 inches by 9 inches. Each is rolled into a little cylinder until the edges touch. Fasten the edges together with copper wire, hairpins or small pieces of non-rusting electric wire, says Family Handyman.

Drop these into your roof gutters at intervals, especially over the spout.

Occasionally remove and shake them out.

Cabrillo Students Find Treasures Near Home

Homes in the Point Loma and La Playa area harbor a regular treasure trove of early American historical objects, fifth-grade pupils at Cabrillo elementary school discovered recently.

Mrs. Marie Hagar's fifth graders were studying Colonial American history. Someone suggested that perhaps they could arrange display of household objects from colonial days.

The response was surprising, and soon Mrs. Hagar's classroom boasted a collection which Grce Finley, principal, said was outstanding. The City School's Audio-Visual Aids department came out and took pictures so that the display could be shared with other fifth-grade classes throughout the city.

To the exhibit David Lieberman contributed two long handled ladles, a small cooking pot, an iron, a spice box, iron muffin pan, a wooden potato mashed, an iron ice cream scoop, and a pudding mold.

Brad Hallan brought in iron, a candle mold, a copper bedwarming pan and a large cookie mold hand carved from hardwood. Frances Maloney displayed child's leather boot, handmade, and an apothecary's scale with metal disks for measuring grains and drams.

Two early American glasses, one molded and one hand cut, were contributed by Richard Balough, and Mrs. Hagar herself added two early American silver spoons to the display.

The net result, says Miss Finley, was that the class's study of colonial American really was made to core "alive".

New Officers Are Elected By Pupils

Campaign speeches and electioneering were the order of the day as the upper elementary grades of Ocean Beach School went to the polls to elect their officers and representatives for the semeser. All the elements of a full adult campaign were presented as the school children learned democracy through action.

In room meetings, candidates were nominated for office. They then prepared their campaign speeches and posters. A special assmbly was held in which the candidates had an opportunity to come before the electorate and sell their candidacy. Each person was issued a ballot which he marked in secret and returned to the ballot box. When the returns were in, he ballots completely tabulated the victors proved to be: President, Joan Saleeby; Vice-President, Victoria Wagner; Secretary, Tracy Rother; Historian, Karen Beard.

$4 BILLION FOR A RAINY DAY!

That's how much Californians are now saving in our bank—$4,078,274,433 as of the end of the year. Part of this money will make the hopes and dream of thousands of people come true this year. The rest will be saved for a "rainy day" or to help thousands more build their plans for the future. If all this money were allowed to remain in our bank until the end of 1955, it would earn $81,565,488 interest. And that's another good reason for saving at Bank of America—the 2% bank interest. If you don't have an account with us, we invite you to open one now!

WHAT WOULD YOU BUY WITH $1,965,000,000?

We have a pretty good idea of what was bought for that amount of money during 1954—for it's the approximate amount of Timeplan and other instalment credit loans made by our bank last year. A good share of it went to pay for automobiles, household appliances, home improvements, Christmas gifts and many other worthwhile things right here in our town. If you need money at any time during 1955, Timeplan may be your answer, too.

HAVE YOU "CHECKED" YOUR NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS?

Chances are by now you've forgotten most of them. Many of our friends this year decided to open Bank of America checking accounts to help them keep better track of their money—the kind of resolution that can be worth a great deal in terms of thrift and convenience. If you haven't yet discovered how much Bank of America checks can mean to you, come in and let us explain the merits of either a regular or Tenplan checking account.

In San Diego they will be available at pet shops, veterinarians and the San Diego Humane Society, which is cooperating whole heartedly in the American Kennel Club sanctioned event. In fact, according to Harry Malcolm, Society president, arrangements are now in the making for children throughout he county to receive free tickets to the all-breed dog show and obedience trials free of cost on application at the Society headquarters, 887 Sherman St., just west of Morena Boulevard.

The one-day show will be staged Sunday, Feb. 13 in the Electric Bldg., Balboa Park, recognized in Pacific Coast dog-show circles as one of the most popular indoor show locations available.

Ada Dellinger, 998 East Main St., El Cajon, (Phone HI-4-4714) is in charge of premium list and entry blank distribution.

According to Bradshow, more than 200 trophies, one of the most extensive prize lists ever poster for a Southland dog show, will be awarded outright by judg judges of national prominence, promising a record-breaking number of blueblood entries.

HEALTH FOR ALL

LIFE-SAVING TRIO

It started with a headache that wouldn't go away. The pretty little six-year-old girl lay in bed for days crying pitifully for relief from something she could not understand. Finally she lapsed into a semi-stupor, recognizing on one, moaning constantly.

"Tuberculosis meningitis." These are tragic words. Less than 10 years ago when a doctor pronounced them, they meant death. There was nothing to be done for this most serious type of TB which affects the covering of the brain.

Then came a drug, streptomycin, and in 1947 the survival rate went up to 25 per cent. Soon another drug with an even longer name, para-aminosalicyclic acid (PAS), was added. In 1949 the survival rate climed to 60 per cent. Then in 1952 came isoniazid. With all three in use, over 90 per cent of the victims of tuberculosis meningitis live.

The pretty little six-year-old is one of those saved from death. It was touch-and-go for weeks, but the trio of drugs finally pulled her through. She can join her playmates now. She can go back to school.

In spite of the great progress that has been made, meningitis is still a most serious complication of pulmonary tuberculosis, one which frequently occurs in young children. The disease must be diagnosed early and treated promptly to save life and to prevent crippling, blindness, and retarded mental capacity which it sometimes leaves in its wake. The earlier treatment can be started, the better chance the patient has for complete recovery.

There is no need to be fearful whenever a child has a painful headache and nausea, but the doctor should be consulted. The symptoms are vague, and could indicate a number of childhood diseases. If there is any chance that the child has been exposed to TB, the doctor should be told so that he can make the necessary tests immediately.

WASHINGTON AND

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

Readers ask "what is meant in Washington by a liberal?"

* * *

Current definition seems to be a liberal is anyone who is liberal with other people's money. The degree of liberalism depends on how much tax money is sought to throw around. A liberal is also helped if he can loftily ignore facts, if he has never had to meet a payroll, or make a living in business.

C. W. Harder

Thus Harold Stassen, head of Foreign Operation Administration, successor to Marshall Plan, qualifies as a really great liberal. But for stubborn resistance of Treasury Secretary George Humphrey, Congress would today be considering request for $10 billion Marshall Plan for Asia.

Curiously there has never been a full scale Congressional investigation of just what foreign give-away programs are accomplishing. FOA's own tax-paid corps of press agents, who rush into printing a book or pamphlet at drop of a tax dollar, reflect a great deal of confused thinking.

For example at present FOA is publishing booklets on each of more than 50 nations receiving U. S. aid. The one on Turkey is interesting. If anyone can have problems solved by U. S. gifts, self-reliant Turks should be in that position. The Turks, unlike others, have never demanded U. S. aid as alternative to going communist. In fact, Turkey, located on the Southern border of big Russia, has even refused to discuss with Kremlin joint control of Dardenelles, despite threats. In Korea, Turkey's contribution of armed forces both in quantity and quality was exceptional. Kremlin shows great respect for 23,000,000 tough Turks.

FOA reports Turkey has received a half billion dollars in economic aid, plus many millions in military aid, and have received committments for a billion dollars of additional arms. Yet FOA also claims because Turkish standard of living, per capita income, and diets are substandard, more dollars should be given Turkey.

Yet, a few pages later FOA reports that from a base period of 1945-49 Turkey's cotton production increased from 65,000 to 170,000 tons, livestock increased from 55 million to 62,400,000 head, cereal production jumped from 6.3 million tons to 14.3 million tons, chrome production doubled, copper production more than doubled, manganese production increased tenfold.

In 1952 Turkey was world's fourth largest wheat exporter, and with about one seventh of U. S. human population, Turkey's livestock population is one-third of the U. S. FOA also reports Turkey needs storage facilities; grain storage capacity has been increased from a half million tons to two million tons.

* * *

Thus, it appears Turkey's major problem is agricultural surpluses. American farmers would be pleased to know how FOA with dollar gifts would solve Turkish farm problem, which has yet to be solved at home.

* * *

Yet curiously while Congress has held exhaustive investigations on postal deficits of $400 million per year, it has yet to make equally exhaustive probes at American foreign aid operations which have already cost taxpayers between $50 and $70 billion depending on which method of accounting is used.

Community Center Quarterly Meet Held On Monday

Over sixty people enjoyed a pot luck dinner Monday evening preceeding the quarterly meeting of the Community Center members.

Mrs. Paul Holbrook presided over the meeting, assisted by Willa May Swift and Jack Dawson, Center Recreation leaders.

Among the many activities listed at the Center, two were announced as not quite so well-known; namely a cake decoration class on Mondays and a Junior High School square dance class on Tuesday evenings. Dawson, senior leader, remarked that an estimated 3000 persons made use weekly of the Ocean Beach Community Center.

Stuart Harder of the San Diego Recreation Dept. spoke on the cut of employees at the Center. The third person assisting the many activities and people had been eliminated seriously hampering the supervision. Soon after the Fordham and Wallace Recreation centers were closed down, the monies were usel to help staff the Center. Now a new budget is in progress and without those monies, the Budget Officer feels a cut is necessary. It was decided that each organization would write or appear before the City Council protesting this cut.

Friday of this week will begin a series of yearly events sponsored by the Center. The first event will be the Yo-Yo Contest. On January 28 the second Yo-Yo contest will be held, and the finals will be Feb. 4th.

The Marble Contest will be February 19th; March 11th will be the annual Kite Festival, and on April 2nd the Wheel Parade will be held.

The 8th anniversary of the Center will be observed on April 15th, and in May the Doll Show and the Tap Dance Festival will be held.

Harry Masters spoke on Civil Defense, stressing the enrolling in First Aid. He asked Mrs. Roy Orrick to take a bow for her recognition in the Warden Service, and a recent award she had received from the American Legion in her Civil Defense work.

Al Faxon of the Ocean Beach Baptist church told of the work being planned and undertaken by his church in the event a catastrophe occurs on Sunday, they will be prepared to keep children and adults in the building up to a week if necesary. Different committees are already preparing storage of bedding, dehydrated foods, etc. He especially emphasized the non-existance of panic in children, but the adults would be a problem.

Enar Olson spoke briefly on reviving the soft ball games that in years past were so popular.

George Tasch, Grand Knight of the newly organized Knights of Columbus and W. R. Wright of the Moose Lodge were newcomers to the meeting.

The next quarterly meeting will be held in April.

Legal Secretaries Meet January 24th

The San Diego Legal Secretaries Association has invited as guest speaker for its January dinner-meeting, John R. Jones, Assistant Agent in Charge, in the local office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The topic of Mr. Jones' speech will be "Your F.B.I.".

The dinner-meeting will take place on Monday, January 24th at 6:30 p.m., at the University Club. In charge of decorations for the evening will be Una Clark and Ruth Irwin.

Home Department To Meet Jan. 27th

The American Home Department of Ocean Beach Woman's Club will meet January 27 in the Club House, Bacon and Muir, from 10 a.m. to noon. The group will work on Arts and Crafts projects.

A cooking demonstration will be presented at 1 p.m. by the San Diego Gas and Electric Company. The projects in arts and crafts will be the construction of candy baskets and making of candles for the Style Show and card party scheduled for February 15. Chairman is Mrs. Sylvan Planson.

Cornpopping Is Fun!

There's something mysteriously exciting about popping corn, where small, hard kernels bounce like hail on a slate roof then spectacularly burst into beautiful, fluffy white popcorn. Even if it weren't such wonderful eating—popular with folks of all ages—popcorn would be worth making, just for the sheer fun of it!

Popped in hot Spry, popcorn is extra-crisp, extra-tender, extra-good! The purity of the shortening lets the full flavor of the corn come through in all its natural goodness. It's especially delicious served with mugs of hot cider spiced with clove.

Bowls of fluffy popcorn are a must for winter parties and home entertaining. Here is the newest recipe developed in the Lever Test Kitchens.

Home-Popped Popcorn

Melt 1/4 cup Spry in heavy skillet. Add 1/2 cup popcorn and 1 teaspoon salt; stir until first kernel pops. Cover and shake over high heat until all kernels are popped. Turn out into large bowl. Serve piping hot.

Pomona Night January 25th

San Diego County alumni of Pomona College will celebrate "Pomona College Night" at a dinner meeting at 7 p.m. Tuesday at Mission Valley Country Club, Camino Del Rio, San Diego.

Dr. Alvin Scaff, acting chairman of the college's sociology department, will speak on "The Communist Problem in Southeast Asia." Norman Kaufman, San Diego, a 1950 graduate of the college, will be chairman.

Alumni are invited to bring husbands or wives to the dinner. Parents of Pomona students and other friends of the college are also invited.

Mrs. Roger Redden Honored At Shower

Mrs. Roger Redden was honored at a baby shower in the home of Mrs. David Redden, 5061 Santa Monica Avenue. Assisting the hostess was Mrs. Evelyn Welch and Mrs. Calvin Redden.

Attending the traditional "Blue and Pink" party were Mrs. Ethel Young, Mrs. Delores Raimes, Mrs. Florence McCoy, Mrs. Catherine Soldier, Mrs. Rollin Reed, Mrs. Doris Redden and Miss Carolyn Redden, daughter of the Calvin Reddens.
